FUGITIVE FOUND HIDING

BEHIND LUMBER PILE Michael Renorck Was Dripping Wet When Arrested by Supernumerary Donovan-Wanted in Willimantic.

Michael Renorck dripping wet was found by Supernumerary John Dono-van about 11 o'clock Saturday night crouching behind a pile of lumber in the Chappell yard and placed under arrest after a Polish man had come to the officer on Thames square and told him with excited gestures that there was a man down there with a gun who had stolen a lot of money.
Later it was learned that Renorck was wanted in Williamntic on a charge of stealing $20. The man was taken back to Willimantic Sunday afternoon by an officer who came here for him. When searched at the Nor-wich police station three $20 bills were found upon him, but no gun. He was so thoroughly cold and soaked when brought in that Captain Two-mey had to wrap him up in a blanket while his clothes were drying on the standpipes, It is believed that Renorck ran down into the lumber yard when he saw he was recognized by the man who told the policeman and as Renorck did not know the locality probably ran overboard and had just scrambled back to land when the policeman arrived.

DIVINE AUTHORITY

IN THE CHURCH Subject of Lenten Sermon at St. Patrick's Church.

At the Lenten service at St. Pat-rick's church Sunday evening, Father Walter, a Passionist missionary from Boston, delivered a powerful sermon before a congregation which was the largest that has been present at these special Lenten services, speaking upon the general theme of the divine right of the church to promulgate and enforce her laws.

In his opening words he referred to the modern trend of indifference to legislation and the fashion of men to refuse to recognize any authority outside of their own sweet will, which he compared to a similar condition in the days of old when the Jews said "We will not have this man to rule over us." This, he said, was a se-rious matter and one fraught with the direst consequences if allowed to go unchecked and if the laws of the church were to be received only as recommendations or suggestions.

He pointed out how the church was concerned with the spiritual welfare and the state with the temporal welfare and that the church has the jus right to make the necessary laws for ecuring the proper worship of God He asked how it was that men would obey irksome laws of the state, but when the church asks for obedience they seem so unwilling to obey unless it pleases them. The church is not a mere human institution with mere human authority, but exists by divine right, looming up through the centu-ries with the divine seal of approval upon her brow, towering over governments and exercising an authority that none of them possess.

The real reason why men refuse to obey God's laws is the diabolical spirit of pride. They say they don't want to be dictated to by any pope, hishop or priest. They say they don't want anyone to come between them and God, but this, the preacher said, is a mis-erable subterfuge. God the Creator has the right to tell you how he wants to be worshipped and He does so declare through his representatives. is not obliged to accept every per-formance that might be offered to Him and if we wish to be saved we must follow the system established by His divine Son.

Surely it is God's will for us to hear the voice of the church and keep hear the voice of the church and the voice of th her commandments as we would the voice and commandments of God.

and evening service. In the morning she sang an Ave Maria by Roswick and in the evening at benediction O Salutaris by Mattfeld, rendering both with impressiveness and excellent voice that was much appreciated by the large congregations.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets - the substitute for calomel — are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost inst. They are the result of Dr. instantaneous determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel, His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havor with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they 'perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
